

Please do not let the monopolistic problems come back. I despise dealing with large company's "Call Centers" especially SBC's and Comcast's, and very much enjoy the very personal and excellent service of a small ISP provider. I'm afraid situations like this will cause small providers to go away. A choice between Comcast and SBC for internet provider is like the choice between eating nails or glass for dinner. Thanks.